

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
17-002	Walter Gouveia	Posted an unprofessional and offensive caption on social media.	No	1 day	F
18-003	Lianne Wolfram	Intentionally damaged the property of another without permission. Failed to report a change of home address as required by policy. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Criminal Property Damage in the Third Degree	Yes	10 days	P
20-003	Derek Hahn	Committed and was found guilty of criminal felony offenses involving Conspiracy and Attempt to Obstruct an Official Proceeding with the former Chief of Police. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Conspiracy Attempt to Obstruct an Official Proceeding *FBI Investigation	*No	Discharged	P
20-013	Yvette Miura	Submitted a falsified HPD document. Failed to submit a report in a timely manner as required by department policy. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Tampering with a Government Record	Yes	3 days	A

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
20-027	Reynwood Makishi	Used a work computer to obtain a female's personal contact information for nonwork-related purposes. Sent unwanted text messages to the female. Failed to activate his body-worn camera. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Harassment *Unable to establish the elements of a crime.	*No	1 day	A
20-051	Cary Izuka	Failed to follow motor vehicle pursuit and use of force departmental policies. Failed to notify supervisor in a timely manner after a critical incident.	No	3 days	P
20-052	Lordy Cullen	Failed to follow motor vehicle pursuit and uniform/equipment policies. Failed to submit a report in a timely manner.	No	1 day	A
20-054	Micah Medeiros	Was unprofessional and used unreasonable force when addressing and detaining an individual. Failed to properly document the incident as required by departmental policy. *Pursuant to the grievance process, the arbitrator reduced the suspension from 10 days to 5 days.	No	*5 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
21-001	Michael Rourke	Was involved in a physical confrontation with the complainant, causing pain and injury. Harassed and/or acted inappropriately when he continued to approach and argue with the complainant after she told him to leave her alone. Sent numerous text messages to the complainant that were demeaning and/or manipulative. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Abuse of Family or Household Members Criminal Property Damage in the Third Degree	Yes	Discharged	A
22-001	Warren Rohr	Failed to ensure that subordinates received proper instruction or guidance to address a detainee's behavior in an appropriate manner. Failed to ensure that subordinates were properly supervised when they entered the detainee's holding cell with the intention to take away the detainee's clothing. *Pursuant to the grievance process, suspension reduced from 20 days to 10 days.	No	*10 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
22-007	Thomas-John Kaanana	Used excessive and/or unreasonable force while assisting with grabbing or restraining a detainee in an effort to remove the detainee's clothes without justification. Used excessive and/or unreasonable force when he struck the detainee without justification. Committed a criminal act when he intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly caused bodily injury to the detainee without justification. Failed to intervene and take appropriate action upon witnessing the detainee being assaulted or subjected to unreasonable force by other officers. Submitted an incomplete report and was untruthful and/or falsified his police report. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Assault in the Second Degree *Pursuant to the grievance process, discharge reduced to 20-day suspension. During the grievance process, it was determined that there was insufficient evidence to support the allegations of excessive force and criminal conduct. Therefore language struck out above.	Yes	*20 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
22-008	Judah Kekua	Used excessive and/or unreasonable force while assisting with grabbing or restraining a detainee in an effort to remove the detainee's clothes without justification. Used excessive and/or unreasonable force when he struck the detainee without justification. Committed a criminal act when he intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly caused bodily injury to the detainee without justification. Failed to intervene and take appropriate action upon witnessing the detainee being assaulted or subjected to unreasonable force by other officers. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Assault in the Second Degree *Pursuant to the grievance process, discharge reduced to 20-day suspension. During the grievance process, it was determined that there was insufficient evidence to support the allegations of excessive force and criminal conduct. Therefore, language struck out above.	Yes	*20 days	F
22-014	Lance Yashiro	Failed to supervise and ensure that personnel were proactively taking enforcement action during their entire shift. Improperly authorized department personnel to work back-to-back shifts and/or weekly hours that exceeded the maximum limit. Failed to abide by the weekly overtime limits by repeatedly working over the established limitation. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Theft in the Fourth Degree	Yes	5 days	P

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
22-015	Corey Morgan	Used excessive and/or unreasonable force when he pushed a handcuffed arrestee head first into a shelving unit and struck him in the face without justification. Committed a criminal act when he struck the arrestee's face while the arrestee was handcuffed and caused the arrestee to sustain bodily injury. Submitted an incomplete report when he did not document the use of force and/or did not submit the appropriate form. Was untruthful and/or falsified his submitted report when he knowingly wrote a false statement about how the arrestee was injured. Was unprofessional and/or acted inappropriately when directing profanity toward the arrestee. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Assault in the Second Degree *FBI Investigation	*No	Discharged	P
22-016	Matthew Ogoshi	Failed to report and/or document an incident truthfully after witnessing and/or becoming aware of an officer pushing an arrestee head first into a shelving unit and/or striking the arrestee in the face. Was untruthful and/or falsified his police report when he wrote a false statement regarding how the arrestee sustained injuries. Failed to intervene and/or take appropriate action during the entire incident due to being partial to the officer.	No	Discharged	A
22-018	Franchot Termeteet	Was overbearing when he placed his Conducted Energy Weapon (CEW) against a detainee's face. Was unprofessional when he told the detainee that he would activate the CEW in the detainee's mouth.	No	10 days	A

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
23-003	John McCarthy	Sent a text message to a subordinate that contained an inappropriate and/or unwelcomed image of a sexual nature. *Officer retired prior to 3-day suspension.	No	*3 days	F
23-005	Jenna Cuban	Failed to notify dispatch of a traffic stop. When the subject vehicle drove away, failed to notify dispatch that she was initiating a motor vehicle pursuit. Failed to activate her body-worn camera. Failed to conduct a risk assessment or terminate the pursuit when the subject vehicle was involved in a motor vehicle collision (MVC). Left the scene of the MVC without notifying her supervisor or dispatch that her pursuit of the subject vehicle was the proximate cause of the MVC. Failed to return to the scene of the MVC to render aid, secure the scene, and apprise officers responding to the MVC. Provided false information when questioned by her supervisor.	No	Discharged	F
23-006	James Baik	Failed to follow prescribed motor vehicle pursuit procedures. Failed to assess the risks and terminate the pursuit as the stolen vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed and was later involved in a motor vehicle collision (MVC). Failed to immediately render aid to the injured persons at the scene of the MVC. Failed to activate his body-worn camera during the pursuit and at the scene of the MVC. Falsified and provided untruthful and misleading statements in his police reports and during the administrative investigation to conceal his involvement. Conspired with another officer to conceal his involvement in the pursuit that was a proximate cause of the MVC.	No	Discharged	A

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
23-007	Joseph Correia	Failed to follow prescribed motor vehicle pursuit procedures. Failed to assess the risks and terminate the pursuit as the stolen vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed and was later involved in a motor vehicle collision (MVC). Failed to immediately render aid to the injured persons at the scene of the MVC. Failed to activate his body-worn camera during the pursuit and at the scene of the MVC. Was untruthful to officers and supervisors investigating the MVC, causing an officer to unintentionally document a false statement and delaying the implementation of the Officer Critical Incident Protocol. Falsified and provided untruthful and misleading statements in his police reports and during the administrative investigation to conceal his involvement. Conspired with another officer to conceal his involvement in the pursuit that was a proximate cause of the MVC.	No	Discharged	A
23-008	Alexander Sanga	While off duty, fled the scene of a motor vehicle collision (MVC) after colliding into an unattended parked vehicle. Left the scene without providing assistance and/or personal and vehicle information. Failed to make appropriate notifications to the police in a timely manner. Operated a vehicle with an expired safety check and vehicle registration and without any motor vehicle insurance. Was untruthful during the administrative investigation and Submitted falsified written statements for the MVC report. *Pursuant to the grievance process, truthfulness allegation was not sustained and discharge reduced to 20-day suspension.	No	*20 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
23-017	Charles Gallimore	Violated the conditions of a temporary restraining order on multiple occasions. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Violation of a Temporary Restraining Order	Yes	Discharged	A
23-018	Marc Randall	While off duty, was overbearing, inappropriate, and unprofessional when interacting with individuals at a private facility. Displayed his badge to assert his police authority for a matter that did not require him to act in an official capacity. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Harassment	Yes	3 days	A
23-019	Michael Younge	Made inappropriate comments of a sexual nature to a subordinate officer. Made an inappropriate and/or discriminatory comment to another subordinate. Made an inappropriate and/or disrespectful comment about a subordinate to other officers. *Pursuant to the grievance process, suspension reduced from 3 days to 1 day.	No	*1 day	F
23-020	Justin Nakakuni	While off duty, failed to take necessary safety precautions when handling a firearm. Negligently discharged the firearm, causing bodily injury to another individual. Failed to properly register the firearm in a timely manner. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Assault in the Second Degree *Unable to establish the elements of a crime.	*No	10 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
23-022	Andrew Moss	Failed to initiate or declare a pursuit and failed to follow proper pursuit procedures. Failed to download any body-worn camera footage.	No	1 day	F
23-023	Rommel Baysa	Failed to make notification that officers were involved in a critical incident. Failed to ensure that the body-worn cameras of the involved officers were promptly recovered and that the officers were promptly relieved and sequestered. Failed to conduct a thorough inquiry into a witness's statement that the suspect vehicle was being pursued by police vehicles at the time of the motor vehicle collision (MVC). Failed to properly supervise subordinate officers at the scene, resulting in an improper and/or incomplete investigation of the incident being conducted and allowed investigating officers to conceal the police officers' involvement in the MVC.	No	7 days	A
23-024	Wade-Thomas Nakagawa	Failed to make notification that officers were involved in a critical incident. Failed to ensure that the body-worn cameras of the involved officers were promptly recovered and that the officers were promptly relieved and sequestered. Failed to conduct a thorough inquiry into a witness's statement that the suspect vehicle was being pursued by police vehicles at the time of the motor vehicle collision (MVC). Failed to properly supervise subordinate officers at the scene, resulting in an improper and/or incomplete investigation of the incident being conducted and allowing investigating officers to conceal the police officers' involvement in the MVC. Used force against a male at the scene and did not document it in an incident report form. *Pursuant to the grievance process, suspension reduced from 5 days to 3 days.	No	*3 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
23-026	Fetia Solomon	Failed to immediately notify supervisors and investigators at the scene that a witness was alleging police involvement in the motor vehicle collision (MVC). Failed to obtain a complete and thorough statement from the witness and failed to document the witness's statement and/or contact information in her submitted police report. Conducted and submitted an improper and/or incomplete MVC investigative report which did not depict the officers' involvement in the MVC. Covered her body-worn camera to obstruct an encounter with a witness. Concealed the police officers' involvement in the pursuit and the officers' involvement in fleeing from the scene. *Pursuant to the grievance process, suspension reduced from 3 days to 1 day.	No	*1 day	F
23-030	Kevin Napoleon	Made inappropriate comments of a sexual nature on several occasions during lineup.	No	5 days	A
23-032	Brian Smith	During a random drug test, provided a sample that tested positive for a dangerous drug. Was untruthful during the administrative investigation.	No	Discharged	F
24-001	Cornell Munalem	Failed to keep his body-worn camera activated during a major motor vehicle collision investigation. Failed to ensure that the appropriate citations were issued for multiple traffic violations. Was untruthful and falsified his submitted police reports. Failed to further investigate and/or recover evidence and failed to secure and process the crime scene.	No	Discharged	P

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-002	Jake Ryan Bartolome	Failed to keep his body-worn camera activated as he initiated a pursuit of the suspect's vehicle. Failed to follow prescribed pursuit policies and procedures. Failed to immediately report the motor vehicle collision (MVC) when he witnessed the suspect vehicle veer off the roadway. Failed to stop and immediately render aid to injured persons and failed to preserve the crime scene. Fled from the scene of the MVC, which resulted in serious bodily injury. Upon later returning to the scene, failed to notify a supervisor of the facts and circumstances of the pursuit. Failed to document in his submitted report the facts and circumstances of the suspect vehicle being involved in an MVC during the pursuit. Failed to activate his body-worn camera when he was flagged down by a male who reported a mugging or robbery and failed to properly investigate and/or document the incident in a police report. Was untruthful during the administrative investigation. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Hindering Prosecution in the First Degree Conspiracy to Commit Hindering Prosecution in the First Degree	Yes	Discharged	P

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-003	Joshua Nahulu	Failed to keep his body-worn camera activated as he initiated a pursuit of the suspect's vehicle. Failed to follow prescribed pursuit policies and procedures. Failed to immediately report the motor vehicle collision (MVC) when he witnessed the suspect vehicle veer off the roadway. Failed to stop and immediately render aid to injured persons and failed to preserve the crime scene. Fled from the scene of the MVC, which resulted in serious bodily injury. Upon later returning to the scene, failed to notify a supervisor of the facts and circumstances of the pursuit. Failed to document in his submitted report the facts and circumstances of the suspect vehicle being involved in an MVC during the pursuit. Was untruthful during the administrative investigation. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Collisions Involving Death or Serious Bodily Injury	Yes	Discharged	P

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-004	Erik Smith	Failed to keep his body-worn camera activated as he initiated a pursuit of the suspect's vehicle. Failed to follow prescribed pursuit policies and procedures. Failed to immediately report the motor vehicle collision (MVC) when he witnessed the suspect vehicle veer off the roadway. Failed to stop and immediately render aid to injured persons and failed to preserve the crime scene. Fled from the scene of the MVC, which resulted in serious bodily injury. Upon later returning to the scene, failed to notify a supervisor of the facts and circumstances of the pursuit. Failed to document in his submitted report the facts and circumstances of the suspect vehicle being involved in an MVC during the pursuit. Was untruthful during the administrative investigation. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Hindering Prosecution in the First Degree Conspiracy to Commit Hindering Prosecution in the First Degree	Yes	Discharged	P
24-005	Scout Benson	Conducted an unreasonable search of the suspect's property. Provided false and/or inaccurate statements during an Administrative Driver's License Revocation Office hearing. *Pursuant to the grievance process, discharge reduced to a 20-day suspension.	No	*20 days	F
24-006	Sandy Cesar	Failed to make notifications and take appropriate action. Failed to immediately investigate a report of an individual needing assistance on police property. Abandoned her post and/or left it unstaffed without any justification and/or without being properly relieved. Provided untruthful and/or incorrect statements during the administrative investigation.	No	Discharged	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-007	Victor Ando	Failed to immediately activate and/or utilize his body-worn camera (BWC). Provided false and inaccurate information in his submitted police reports. Failed to submit evidence according to prescribed procedures. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Tampering With a Government Record Theft in the Fourth Degree *Pursuant to the grievance process, discharge reduced to a 65-day suspension.	Yes	*65 days	F
24-008	Jason Allen	Failed to properly lead, direct, train, guide, and supervise his subordinate officers regarding the proper procedures for executing search warrants and utilizing confidential and/or controlled informants. *Pursuant to the grievance process, 1-day suspension reduced to a written reprimand.	No	*Written reprimand	F
24-009	Joseph Tomita	While off-duty, pushed a male who fell to the ground/pavement and sustained injuries. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Assault in the Third Degree *Pursuant to the grievance process, suspension reduced from 20 days to 10 days.	Yes	*10 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-010	Joseph Lindley-Molina	During a mandatory drug urinalysis test, provided a urine sample that tested positive for a dangerous drug. *Officer resigned prior to discharge.	No	*Discharged	F
24-011	Eliott Kaiapoepoe	While off-duty, argued with a male and told him they could settle the matter through a physical altercation. Identified himself as a police officer during the argument and failed to provide his badge number when requested.	No	1 day	F
24-012	Michael Brede	Failed to log his duty hours on the Daily Attendance Reports. Failed to properly lead, train, direct, guide, and supervise subordinate officers regarding policies and procedures relating to attendance reporting and control. *Officer retired prior to 1-day suspension.	No	*1 day	F
24-013	Michael Tamashiro	Failed to log his duty hours on the Daily Attendance Reports. Failed to properly lead, train, direct, guide, and supervise subordinate officers regarding policies and procedures relating to attendance reporting and control. *Officer retired prior to 1-day suspension.	No	*1 day	F
24-014	Terrance Katakura	Found a wallet that did not belong to him and retained possession of it without taking any measures to immediately facilitate its return to the owner. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Theft in the Second Degree *Unable to establish the elements of a crime.	*No	1 day	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-015	Tracy Spacek	Accessed multiple police reports without authorization and distributed the reports to a non-departmental employee for a civil court hearing.	No	5 days	P
24-016	Ezrah Carvalho	Took video recording(s)/photograph(s) of a secured area of a departmental facility, which was shown on a broadcasted news segment without departmental authorization.	No	5 days	F
24-017	Antonio Mendoza	Failed to submit appropriate documentation for a leave request. Utilized unauthorized leave for personal business. Falsified a departmental form. Yelled and exhibited anger in the workplace. *Officer was discharged for an unrelated matter prior to 1-day suspension.	No	*1 day	F
24-018	Mariah Ah Tou	Operated a motor vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicant and collided into another vehicle and an affixed street sign. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Operating a Vehicle Under the Influence of an Intoxicant	Yes	Discharged	P
24-019	Derek Ota	Used unreasonable and/or excessive force when interacting with a male in custody. Made multiple rude comments to emergency room staff. Deactivated his body-worn camera in violation of departmental policy.	No	3 days	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Reference No.	Employee Name	Summary / Findings	PAT Notified	Disciplinary Action	Status	Ref. No. with Same Officer
24-020	Mason Jordan	Accessed the police report system on different occasions to conduct inquiries and obtain information on multiple female individuals for nonwork-related reasons. Committed criminal acts when he conspired with an accomplice to recruit a juvenile female as a prostitute and propositioned a juvenile female to perform sexual acts for a fee. Committed a criminal act when he threatened to release or expose photographs of a partially nude juvenile. Criminal Conduct Initiated: Sex Trafficking *Homeland Security investigation. Officer resigned prior to discharge.	*No	Discharged	F
24-021	Robert Campbell	Made inappropriate comments of a sexual nature to a subordinate.	No	1 day	P
24-022	Brock Paikai	Failed to properly recover and/or submit personal property of an arrestee.	No	1 day	F

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration

Honolulu Police Department
Legislative Disciplinary Report
Reporting Year: 2024

Suspended	Discharged	Standard of Conduct
0	0	Malicious Use of Physical Force
0	0	Mistreatment of Prisoners
0	1	Use of Drugs and Narcotics
0	0	Cowardice

NOTE: The initiation of a criminal case does not imply that the case was accepted for prosecution or that it was a determining factor in the disciplinary action taken against the officer.

F = Final

P = Grievance Pending

A = Arbitration